Enforcement Director, Edward P. Morgan, Will Give Commencement Address, May 24

Mr. Edward P. Morgan, Director of Enforcement in the Office of Price Stabilization of the federal government, is coming out from Washington, D. C., to make the Commencement address, May 24, according to Dr. J. W. Jones, president of the College.

The announcement was made at a dinner meeting of the Chillicothe alumni, Friday night, March 30, at which Dr. Jones was the principal speaker.

Received B. A. Degree Here

Mr. Morgan, whose home was formerly at Gallatin, is widely known in the district, and his return to the campus will be a kind of homecoming celebration. He received a B. A. degree with majors in English and history in 1934, and for many years after his graduation he was an agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

At the Chillicothe meeting Dr. Jones also announced that Dr. M. S. Harvey, of the First Methodist Church, St. Joseph, will give the Baccalaureate sermon, Sunday, May 20, and he spoke of the building projects on the campus and of the members of the faculty who are not on the campus this year.

Mr. Leech Presides

Mr. Howard Leech, who presided at the meeting, presented Mr. A. H. Kammerer, member of the Board of Regents; Mr. F. B. Houghton, president of the Alumni Association; and Mr. Everett Brown, secretary, who showed pictures in color which he had taken of the 1950 homecoming.

Mr. Houghton announced that Mr. Morgan will also speak at the annual Alumni Banquet which will be held at the College, Wednesday evening, May 23.

Mr. Coleman Is New President

Mr. Bill S. Coleman, who was graduated from the College in 1948 with a major in industrial arts and a minor in mathematics, was elected president of the Chillicothe chapter for next year. He is now employed at the Chillicothe Citizens Bank.

Attending the meeting were the following: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kammerer, Howard Leech, R. P. Foster, R. C. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin L. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. George Sidden, Ellen Tuedgarden, Violet Hunter.

Ruth Linville, Viola Anderson, Maud E. McElvyn, Mary Frances Pugh, Mary E. Keith, Dr. Paul Nutt, Everett W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Bill S. Coleman, Chas. H. Shaffer, Noel T. Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Marion Freeman, P. B. Houghton.

Margaret Curry Returns

Margaret Curry, who is employed as kindergarten teacher in Keokuk, Iowa, visited in Maryville during Easter vacation. She has been asked to return to Keokuk next year with an offer of a raise in salary. Miss Curry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James M. Curry, Oregon, received her B. S. in Elementary Education from the College in August, 1950.

Will Sponsor Art Workshop

During the third week of June the art department will sponsor an art workshop similar to the one held last year. Anyone interested in attending should get in touch with Miss O. S. DeLuca.

Two Are in San Diego

Harry Adams and Paul Windom, freshmen who dropped school during the winter quarter, are stationed in San Diego, California, for their basic naval training.

Newly Elected Senators Serve Three Quarters

Class senators were elected by the individual classes March 28. From four candidates two were selected for a three term tenure in the Student Senate beginning tomorrow.

Freshmen voted in Bea Straight, an Independent, and Stan Ogden, a Sigma Tau Gamma fraternity man. Martha Ingles, an Alpha, and Herschel Neil, a Phi Sig, replaced Dorothy Noelsch and Wilbur Wright as sophomore senators this year and junior senators next year.

Junior elected Jo Cutler, a Delta Sig, and John Yurchak, an Independent, to take the places of Betty Curry and Herbie Awe in the Senate. All newly elected senators will serve until the sixth week of the spring quarter next year.

Coordinator Comes

Tomorrow, Mr. H. W. Reninger, Coordinator of the Program for the Improvement of Instruction sponsored by the North Central Association, will visit the campus.

At 10 a.m. he will meet with the humanities faculty. At 2 p.m. he will meet with the student personnel faculty, and at 4 p.m. he will meet with all the members of the faculty in Room 207.

Blanche and Florence Zucker Will Present Diverse Program

Blanche and Florence Zucker, duo-pianists, who will appear in the College auditorium, April 25, at 10 a. m., have definite feelings on the importance of popular, contemporary American music.

Say the Zucker sisters, "Being American, we feel that the popular and jazz idiom is part of our folklore, and as such should also be heard from the concert halls throughout the country."

Include Own Arrangements

To carry out this thought the Zucker sisters have frequently included in their classical programs their own arrangements of popular songs and jazz, devising programs which include Bach as well as boogie.

They recently appeared on the program of the White House Correspondents' Dinner with Arthur Godfrey, Danny Kaye, and Polyna Skousa, given in honor of President Truman.

Are Widely Known

The two girls have become widely known to large audiences through their appearances for the American Theatre Wing during the war. They played at the Stage Door Canteen, veterans' hospitals, and service camps throughout the country. Their eager and enthusiastically grateful audiences at times numbered as many as 10,000 at a single concert.

Blanche and Florence Zucker began to study the piano at a very early age through an unusual and accidental circumstance. While playing their toy piano, one hot summer day, an elderly European musician, stopped and listened. He was intrigued by their music making. One week later, the two youngsters began their formal study of the piano on scholarship with this musician. They have also studied with Willem Willeke, Virgilio Lazzarri, and Professor Hedda Ballon.

Mr. Foster Attends Meeting

Mr. R. P. Foster, College registrar, will leave April 14, to attend the week-long thirty-seventh national convention of the American Association of Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers, April 15-20 at Houston, Texas.

Horace Mann Has Open House

Open house will be held the evening of April 26 at the Horace Mann school for the 14th Annual Parents' Night. A program and exhibits are being prepared by the students. Refreshments will be served.

Mr. Mulford Attends Meeting

Mr. Harold Mulford of the social science department will attend the annual meeting of the Midwest Sociology Society to be held in Des Moines, Iowa, on April 13 and 14. He recently went to Kingsley, Iowa, to attend his sister's wedding.

Students Elect Dick Gordon, Jean Long, to Senate Posts

One of the most vivid of campaigning endeavors came to a climax Friday, March 30, when Dick Gordon was elected president of the Student Association for the school year of 1951-1952.

Dick, an Independent, just edged out Terry Noah, Greek candidate, in the run-off election. In a preliminary vote Herbie Awe had been eliminated.

College Will Be Host to Seniors

Seniors from all over Northwest Missouri will be guests of the College at the annual Senior Day, April 23. The purpose of the invitation is to help seniors of this area become better acquainted with the college that serves them.

Registration will begin at 9 a.m. Tours of points of interest on the campus will be conducted by Dr. Sterling Surrey. Seniors will visit the library, Residence Hall, home economics house, the President's home, the lake, the gymnasium, the stadium, Horace Mann laboratory school, the Men's Quadrangle, the College farm, the industrial arts department and the Administration Building. Several exhibits and demonstrations will be presented in the different departments.

An assembly program, presided over by Dick Gordon, Student Senate president, and participated in by members of the student body will help the seniors to become acquainted with the students.

In the afternoon a variety show will be presented and career conferences with department heads will be offered to seniors to help them plan their careers.

The committee planning Senior Day are Mr. Everett Brown, chairman, Mrs. Ramona Mattson, Miss Bonnie Magill, Mr. Robert Gee, Dr. D. M. Cooper and Dr. Sterling Surrey.

Helen Davis, Alumna, Is Head of Art Workshop

Helen Davis, an alumna of the College, has made good use of the art training she received here. She is now the head of an art workshop at the army post connected with Fitz-Simmons Veterans Hospital in Denver, Colorado.

Mrs. Davis persuaded officers of the post to open the workshop experimentally. It became so popular with the officers and men of the post and their wives that it is now supported by the post and has become a model for similar workshops.

The workshop is located in a two-story barracks building. One floor is taken up by woodworking. On the other floor are crafts such as clay work, lapidary work, popular because of the semi-precious stones in the region, metal work and jewelry making. The staff consists of Mrs. Davis, two art graduates of Denver University, and three or four other assistants. The shop is open every day and has an average attendance of 75 to 100. The work is recreational and should not be confused with the therapeutic work of the hospital.

Mrs. Davis was graduated in 1944. Her husband, Robert Davis, was president of the Student Senate while he was in school here, and was a flying instructor at the airport during the V-12 program. Since the war he has become a metallurgist and is stationed in Denver.

Miss Mattie Dykes Is Guest in Mehus Home

Miss Mattie Dykes was the guest of Dr. and Mrs. O. Myking Mehus of Kansas City while attending the meeting for College Teachers of Humanities in Kansas City.

Dr. Mehus is a former faculty member of the social science department, and Mrs. Mehus is also a former faculty member, having been director of publicity at the College.

Notice

All students who are seniors or graduates this quarter must have their physical re-checks completed before May 1. They may make their appointments with the nurse, Miss Thelma Smith, Isabel Nash, or Patsy Gehring.

The office hours are as follows: Gymnasium, 8 to 9; Horace Mann, 9 to 11:30. The office telephone number is 147.

Attends Demonstration

Mr. Floyd Houghton of the agriculture department went to St. Joseph, April 3, to a cattle grading demonstration. Grading of the catfish was done according to new grades set up by the United States Department of Agriculture.

Is This an Equivocal Position?

"What do I do now?" seems to be the attitude of the hero in the romantic comedy of "There's Always Juliet," which will be presented tomorrow evening in the auditorium free to all students. Left to right are Ray Nixon, Diane Dressler, Peggy Joyce Moore, Mary Beth Fries, and Charles Watson.

"There's Always Juliet" Is Love at Its Romantic Best

"There's Always Juliet," a romantic comedy by John Van Druten, will be presented by the College speech department tomorrow evening, April 12, at 8:15 p. m. in the College auditorium. Students may gain admission with their activity cards.

Members of the cast are Mary Beth Fries as Eleonora Perrycock, Peggy Moore as Florence, Charles Watson as Dwight Houston, and Ray Nixon as Peter "Porky" Walmsley. The play is under the direction of Mr. Robert Gee.

Set in a London flat, the play concerns the love affair of a young American architect and attempts to show that William Shakespeare may not have been entirely amiss in allowing Romeo to fall in love with Juliet in just five speeches. Mr. Van Druten portrays a case of love at first sight with sparkling wit.

In this play, for the first time in modern theatre, the author employed the technique of using "conversation" on the stage. Although the dialogue is dramatic, it is written to sound as normal conversation might sound. Mr. Van Druten later applied this principle in his better known play, "The Voice of the Turtle."

Students working on the production crews are Diane Dressler, assistant director, Bob Tebow, properties, Jean Short, production manager, Jack Turner, lighting, and Dwan Wick, sound. Members of the advanced play production class are building the sets of the play as a class project. They also built the sets for the recent Horace Mann senior play, "January Thaw."

Mr. Cooper May Soon Leave Hospital in K. C.

Mr. A. H. "Bert" Cooper, director of the State Department of Business and Administration, Jefferson City, is much improved since he recently underwent surgery at Research hospital in Kansas City.

His nephew, Dr. Denzil Cooper, a member of the physics department faculty, says that he will soon be released from the hospital.

Prepare for Play Day

Invitations are being mailed to the senior high school girls of the Northwest Missouri District for the Annual Play Day events of the Women's Athletic Association. Mary Lou Neville is Play Day chairman.

Education "By Doing" Is Theme of Home Ec Program

Practical experience is afforded the Home Economics majors who are given the opportunity to live in the Home Management House for a quarter. A 3.0 hour credit is given for this course which trains the girl to be familiar with the common problems of a modern home. Left to right are Leola Shipley, Nila Geer, Marilyn Alexander, Roberta Walker, Mary Burger, Ruth Slaten, and Jo Anne Taylor.

Home Ec House Is Practical

Practical experience for home economics majors is adequately presented at Northwest Missouri State College. A Home Economics House, which is provided for four students, and a supervisor, and which is located on the southeast corner of the campus, is the educational tool from which such learning takes place.

"To study the cost and problems arising in the management of a successful modern home and make possible some experience in making and executing plans necessary in conducting an efficient home," is the general objective of the Home Economics course which is entitled 175: Home Management House, in the College's catalogue.

Miss Anita Rice, supervisor, arranges the schedule for the four home economics majors so that "by doing" each will be efficiently trained as a housekeeper, a hostess, and a cook.

Like Home, Almost With the exception of certain formalities the campus house is "just like home." The girls interchange activities of being housekeeper, hostess, cook, and assistant cook, so as to receive a comprehensive training. The integration of the accomplishments of these four categories will engender a well-rounded, better-prepared, housewife. "In your own home you are all four in one."

The task of being a housekeeper means a general cleaning of the house with the exception of dining room. It also involves the washing of the dishes. The opportunity of inviting guests, answering the telephone, cleaning the dining room, and caring for the laundry of the table linens fall to the hostess.

Cook Plans and Prepares Meals The cook plans and prepares the meals for the girls and is helped by an assistant cook. The girls exchange these duties weekly.

Reports are also part of the three hour course in which the girls offer a menu for their week as a cook, prepare a statement of the amount of time spent in accomplishing a duty, and suggesting information as (Continued on Page Four)

Movie of Russian Ruler Is Friday

Fine Films Are Ordered

Senate Will Appoint New Student Committee; Give Suggestions as to Wednesday Movies.

Members of the Student Union Committee have prepared a complete schedule for the remainder of the spring quarter. The first of these plans will be executed this Friday evening with the showing of the famous historic story of "Catherine the Great."

Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., and Elizabeth Bergner star in this thrilling story of history's most despotic ruler. The tale of this "enlightened ruler" is one of romance, suspense, and comedy, a movie which will amuse and inform. The Den will be open immediately following the film.

In addition to the week end showing the committee plans to have a movie each Wednesday night. These plans are only tentative, however, and have not been made definite pending action by the Student Senate and the newly appointed Student Union Committee.

Other movies that have been ordered are as follows: April 20, "His Girl Friday," starring Cary Grant and Rosalind Russell; April 27, "Prisoner of Zenda," with Ronald Coleman, Madeline Carroll, and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.; May 4, "It Happened One Night," starring Clark Gable and Claudette Colbert; May 11, "Start Cheering" with Jimmy Durante and Gertrude Nielsen; and May 18, "Nothing Sacred," starring Carole Lombard, Fredric March, and Charles Winninger.

Comedies Are Included

A comedy will be shown with each movie as well as a selected short subject. Shorts selected include "Baseball Memories," "Knockout Thrills," "Great Northern Tackle Busters," "Air Maniacs," "Cupid Takes a Holiday" with Danny Kaye, and "Kitchen Mechanics" with Abbot and Costello. Watch the bulletin board for announcements.

Although weekend activities which feature movies and evening dancing have taken the spotlight, student participation has been exceptionally amplified during the hours of the day when the Beards Den is open.

Den Provides Recreation

Formerly the Den had been a three room study place. Now two of the rooms provide for student recreation. A ping pong table, a $150 shuffleboard, and a $325 pool table occupy one room, while another ping pong table is in the hall, entrance.

This free entertainment outside the classroom has been well-utilized by the students. There is always crowded participation in the various activities.

Fridays, Too!

One of the first considerations of the committee, however, was an effort to supply recreation for students who remained here week ends. A side objective was to encourage students to avoid their suitcases and remain on the campus.

Movies have been offered each open week end and plans have already been put into motion for a movie, comedy, and a short subject each Friday evening for the remainder of the spring quarter. On Saturdays the Beards Den will be open.

College Men Will Be Marine Leaders

Eight men from the College have been accepted for membership in the classes for platoon leaders in the United States Marine Corps, according to Major P. W. Kelley, of the Mid-Western Recruiting division, in Kansas City. They will spend six weeks of this summer in basic training at San Diego and next summer they will go to Quantico for advanced training. They will be graduated at the end of their training period with the rating of second lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps.

Major Kelley commented highly about the type of men represented by this College when he accepted the following: George Coulter, Paul Tobin, William Breit, Rex Plummer, Dick Buckridge, George Clutcher, Vernon Asmus, and Thomas Carver.

Mr. Dieterich Goes to Chicago

Mr. H. R. Dieterich represented the College and Horace Mann school recently at a meeting of the North Central Association of Colleges and Secondary Schools in Chicago. "Education for the Improvement of Human Relationships" was the theme of the meeting.

TWO OF THE BEST

Henry L. Scott provided more than an hour of lively entertainment recently that probably appealed to a greater number of students than has any other assembly this year.

If one could stop laughing, looking and listening long enough to glance at the persons sitting near him, he observed a general hilarious uproar.

However, as well as clowning, Mr. Scott created a real respect for the classical selections he played. Because of the ability he displayed and his artistic interpretation of the classics, he in no way lessened, and probably increased, appreciation for music of a serious nature.

Members of the College band in their recent assembly showed that much work is being done by the music department on the campus. The program was well chosen to include a variety of selections. "Pavanne" and the medley from "South Pacific" were especially well done.

Soloists Al Edlund, cornet, and Warren Brown, clarinet, gave excellent performances. Stan Summers' composition, "Ocean Voyage," which he wrote, arranged and directed, was noteworthy. The performance of his work may give to other students the incentive to do creative work.

Thank you, assembly committee, for these two excellent programs.

HURLING AHEAD

Never before in the history of our country has the motor vehicle caused the death of so many people. As each year comes, reports come with an increase in the highway accident rate. Drunken drivers, weather conditions, and mental dullness cause a surprising number of accidents each year.

With an increase in the number of automobiles on the assembly lines and the increase in population, predictions of increasing accidents will probably come true.

As more people find work each year, there is a need for transportation; and the automobile offers a solution to such persons.

Why people take chances behind the wheel is a puzzle. For some people, the car is a means of getting to a destination fast. Some succeed; others do not.

—R. E. Owens

EIGHTEEN!

Eighteen-year-olds should be permitted to vote. They are being drafted to fight our wars. Some of them have to give up good jobs and opportunities. Some lose their lives. If they are old enough to fight our wars, they should have a voice in our government.

The average eighteen-year-old is better educated now than the average twenty-one-year-old of the older generation. Most of them went to country schools and did not have the opportunity to go farther than the eighth grade.

—David Knauer

MARCH!

With the situation that the world is in today, there are no reasons why the women should not be drafted. They should not be drafted for as long a period as the men, but they should be trained so that they can give aid and care for those that are injured.

—William Norton

HIGH ON THE LIST

High on our list of high school papers being published in this part of the state is the Savannah high school "Savage." Careful composition of the pages shows that attention has been given to neatness and order. The 16-page monthly is filled with appealing features.

Methods Class Is Studying Children

Special methods class in home economics is having an adult home-making class. The class is to include a series of six lessons on "Understanding Your Child."

The lessons are being conducted by Miss Mabel Cook with the help of the methods class. The members are Vivian Cox, Roberta Walker, Marilyn Alexander, Norine Norris, Polly Cramer, and Mary Burger.

Before starting the class, a meeting was held with a group of housewives called the advisory council. The purpose was to see what the housewives in the community would be most interested in. The council also helped setting up other plans. The members of the council were Mrs. Bruce Hicks, Mrs. Joe Johnson, Mrs. Elery Gibson, and Mrs. R. H. Worl.

The following topics were decided on for discussion: March 27, 7:30 p.m., "Helping Your Child in Routine Situations"; April 3, 2:30 p.m., "Helping Your Child Adjust to New Experiences"; April 10, 7:30 p.m., "Helping Your Child Achieve Independence and Security."

April 17, 7:30 p.m., "Handling Feelings of Hostility and Aggressiveness and Defining Limits of Behavior"; April 24, 7:30 p.m., "Understanding the Adolescents—Parents Responsibility for Friendship"; and May 1, 7:30 p.m., "Three Generations Together."

Any homemaker interested may attend these discussions. The class meets in Room 311 in the home economics department of the College.

Music Department Will Advise Contest Winners

Members of the staff of the music department of the Northwest Missouri State College are offering their services to high school music teachers in the Northwest District. Following the District Contests in Maryville and Chillicothe, all superior ratings may be certified to the State Contest in Columbia.

High school teachers may avail themselves of the advice and experience of the College staff by holding evening clinics in their own high schools following the Maryville contest.

Consultants will be Mr. Franklin Mitchell for choral groups and piano soloists, Mr. John Smay for the brass and woodwind instruments and bands, Mr. Donald Sandford for stringed instruments and orchestra, Miss Ruth Miller for piano, and Dr. Paul McNutt for vocal groups and band twirling.

Dr. McNutt emphasizes that each staff member has had considerable experience in high school contest work, both as a director of competing groups and as an adjudicator.

This combination of experiences leads to an understanding of the problems confronting high school contest groups and soloists.

Jobs and Funds Are Now Available for Seniors

Graduating seniors needing funds during the early months of their teaching careers can receive financial assistance through the Northwest Missouri Teachers Credit Union.

Mr. Clifford Kensingler states that one requirement of graduates is that they must have a contract for a job in order to be eligible for a loan from the Union. The money borrowed can be repaid in small monthly payments. Anyone interested who is eligible should see Mr. Kensingler of the commerce department.

Dear Mom

Sorry I haven't written sooner, but every time I would begin a letter some local politician would interrupt me with this campaigning. Now that someone has finally gotten himself that heavy burden of the presidency things will go back to normal. No more unknown friends.

I had a test yesterday. It was one of those objective types. You know, the kind you object to most. The final question asked us to list the magazine which we thought was the best current reading, so I put the "Electrician's Digest."

I've decided to go out for tennis; it's about the only sport I know of in which you can get a letter for being a racketeer.

My roommate is going out for track. He'll always be "going out" because as slow as he is, he'll never come in. And that's straight, and not from the pasture, either.

Yeah, that roomy is just like these new cars—shiftless. The authorities ought to send him to a finishing school. Put a little more polish on him and then finish him off.

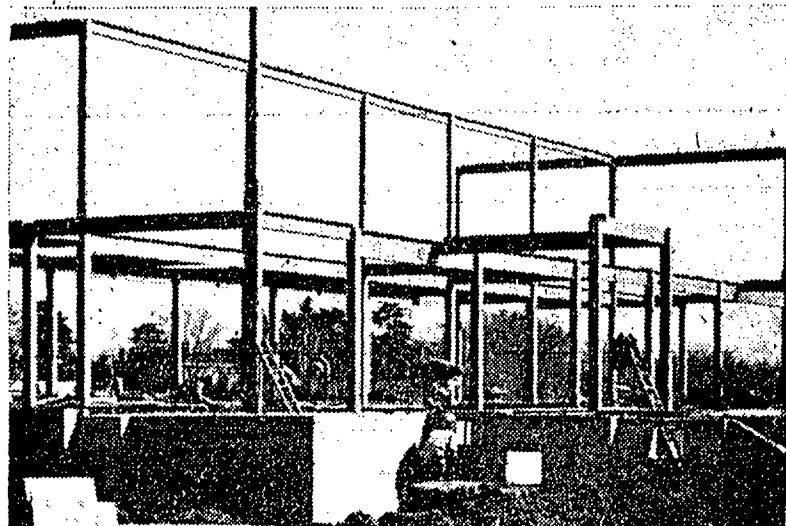

All my love,
Junior.

Dr. John Harr Reviews Social Science Books

New books recently reviewed by Dr. John Harr of the social science department are the new American history text by Muzzey and "Grass of the Earth" by Agot Raen. The latter is a story of immigrant life in North Dakota.

At present Dr. Harr is reviewing "Confederate Leaders in the South" by Hesselstine. The book deals with the southern leaders who, following the Civil War, went into industry, ministry or college work.

Structure Zooms Toward Completion

Workmen struggle diligently over the concrete base of the new Student Union building. The construction is expected to be completed this year in September.

Board of Regents Considers Problems of Next School Year

Business of importance to student pocketbooks was discussed in the annual meeting of the College's Board of Regents recently held in President J. W. Jones' office. It was decided that because of increased food costs, room and board at both Residence Hall and the Quadrangle will be increased $10 per quarter.

Board members agreed upon the following 1951-52 school calendar: Fall, September 4 to November 21; Winter, November 27 to February 27; Spring, March 4 to May 22; Summer 1952, May 27 to August 1.

Leaves Are Granted

Clifford Kensingler, business department; Jessie Jutten, physical education department; Robert Gee, speech department; and Ruth Miller, John Smay and Donald Sandford, all of the music department were granted leave of absence for the coming summer term so that they may engage in advanced study.

New members of the board who were sworn in at the meeting are Mr. W. M. C. Dawson, Grant City, and Mr. W. M. Harrison, Gallatin. Mr. R. L. Douglas, St. Joseph, who was reappointed for another term, was also sworn in. New officers were also elected as follows: Mr. M. E. Ford, president; Mr. R. L. Douglas, vice president; Mr. W. A. Rickenbrode, secretary; Mr. A. J. Dinsdale, treasurer.

Campus improvement projects such as the repairs of the men's quad, the Horace Mann lunchroom, the new men's dormitory, the annex on Residence Hall and the Student Union building were inspected by the board.

The contractor has reported that these projects will probably be completed in August. If furnishings are available, these buildings may be used in the fall.

Auto Accident Takes Bruce Paulman's Life

Bruce Paulman, age 24, a sophomore student at the College, died March 27 at St. Elizabeth's Hospital in Lincoln, Nebraska, following injuries suffered in an automobile accident north of Lincoln.

Mrs. Paulman was seriously injured in the accident. They were on their way home after spending Easter with his parents.

Mr. Paulman was a pre-engineering student.

Bonnie Polk Presents Voice Recital April 17

Bonnie Polk, senior music major, will present her graduation recital in voice at the Horace Mann auditorium on Tuesday, April 17, at 8:15 p. m. Bonnie, whose home is in Sidney, Iowa, is a coloratura soprano.

The highlight of the recital will be an aria, "Ardor, gl'incensi," which is the mad scene from Lucia di Lammermoor by Donizetti. This aria is considered by many voice coaches to be the most difficult of all coloratura numbers.

For those who prefer contemporary music, she has included a modern group, "Poor Richard," the texts of Benjamin Franklin set to music by Ross Lee Finney. Because of the unusual nature of the words, the audience will be provided with mimeographed copies of the text. Bonnie will also sing a group of songs from the Classic and Rocco periods.

Mrs. Mary Jane Sandford, wife of Donald Sandford of the music department, will accompany Bonnie. Not long ago, Mrs. Sandford accompanied her husband in his viola recital.

Miss Locke Attends Convention for Deans

Miss Martha Locke, dean of women, has recently attended the convention of the National Association of Deans of Women, which is a branch of the Council of Education and Personnel Associations. The meeting was held in the Stevens Hotel in Chicago.

One of the speakers was Mrs. Edith S. Sampson, a member of the United States delegation to the General Assembly of the United Nations. Mrs. Sampson spoke of her world trip which was made in an effort to break down the false impressions being spread by Communist groups as to the racial problems within the United States.

Alumni Notes

According to a letter received by Miss Mattie Dykes, Agnetta Sixtens-datter Wohlfahrt, former English major, is now going to the University of Uppsala in Sweden. During the spring she spent her vacation in Norway.

Agnetta was graduated from the College in November of 1950.

Charles Robert Wright, Richmond, California, spent Easter vacation in Maryville. Bob received his B. S. degree from the College in August, 1950, with an industrial arts major and a business minor. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Wright of Maryville.

The Stroller

Practical jokers had their day on April 1, but Barbara Coy won the prize when she convinced Glen Meredith that Jane Costello was in the hospital. However, someone told "Short-change" Neil that his head fell off and it was two hours before he found it was only an April Fool joke.

Sales were up this week on cold cures. At the head of the line were those who tried to rush the blanket party season. Sanburns can be frustrating.

Spring surely effects people strangely. Bill Sheil has hung his pin AGAIN. George Nathan may be seen wandering around the halls with that "I'm-just-a-homeless-cocker-spaniel" look in his eyes since Norine is gone.

One does learn some interesting things by attending class occasionally. Gals in the physical science department are trying to put on weight since learning Newton's law that two bodies are attracted to each other proportional to their weight.

The social science department is right in there pitching, too. Someone suggested that rabbits might be made legal tender, but Mr. Harold Mulford vetoed the idea because of the difficulty in controlling inflation.

In taking a post mortem on the Senate election, the Stroller discovered that the percentage of votes cast was one of the largest in history. As yet no one has determined the best method of campaigning, but Mr. James Johnson, librarian, favored Herbie Awe because he didn't use a P. A. system.

Miss Olive DeLancey will be interested to learn that much interest is developing in Art, though it may be partly because some of the fellows discovered that Charlene Welsh has painted a nude of herself.

Joyce Baker is conducting a test to decide which fraternity she will go steady with, but no results have been announced. When she sent a group of Taus for a box of crackers, and later a group of Phi Sigs, she found herself in possession of two boxes of crackers.

Sign of Loyalty: In a recent conversation with a member of the Stroller's family, Mrs. J. W. Jones almost denied any knowledge of the fact that another Ville in Upper Missouri has a college. It has, too.

All for this week. The Stroller is off to help Jerry Sheil and Carter Botkin who are interviewing the high school girls here for the spring contests.

Sigma Tau Rose Formal Will Close Pledges April 21

Fraternity brothers will present the annual Sigma Tau Gamma Rose Spring Formal April 21 at the Country Club.

Social chairman Kurby Lyle and his committee have established the theme of the dance as "Stardust." From this central theme the Country Club will be decorated in scintillating beauty.

Charles Oellermann, chairman of decorations, says he plans to have several small stars projecting from the central location of the large star. The entire ceiling will be covered with a colorful array of blue and white crepe paper, colors of Sigma Tau Gamma.

Will Use "Pledge" Theme
Downstairs, where snacks will be served, a "Pledge" theme will be predominant. He plans to have paddles, pledge pins, pledge books, and other applicable materials strung about the room to indicate the theme.

Tom Carver, who is chairman of the refreshment committee, has conceded that "there will be plenty to eat and drink for everyone." One of the most captivating occasions will be the crowning of the queen the night of the dance. The lucky "Rose Queen" will be placed on her regal throne, which will be enshrined with blue and white roses.

April 21 Is Big Night
The night of April 21 is also the conclusion of the period of pledging for the twenty-two men. Aside from the dance, that Saturday will be "Hell Night" for the pledges.

Intensive initiation begins Wednesday before, however, and includes what is commonly known as "Hell Week." On April 18 the pledges will be given an opportunity to return swatting favors to the actives in what is commonly known as "reverse night." This lasts but a short time, and the actives take over for the lion's share.

More!
During the few days that follow, pledges will be "required" to get animals, paint their names on a sign two miles south of town, using their legs as vehicles of transportation, hunt for coins in the cemetery, serenade the girls at the dorm, have their paddles signed by all the actives, and accept the many duties which will be assigned by the various actives.

Conclusion of this week will be the night of the dance. Immediately after the pledges have taken their dates home, about 1:30, the active members blindfold them and take two or three together far out into the country for a nocturnal sojourn. The pledges must locate their position and return to town in time to eat breakfast with the actives and to attend church.

Sunday afternoon is the time the pledges will be initiated formally. Present pledges are Jack Welchman, Herbie Awe, Mick Anderson, Morlyn Barrett, George Coulter, Herschel Martin, Bill Stone, Paul Tobin, George Anderson, Jack Austin, Don Corbin, George Kling, Don Palmer, John Lindell, Dean Lundy, Frank Meyer, Bill Norton, Stan Ogden, Bill Stevenson, Dean Stuck, Dick Winburn, and Jim Gill-ette.

Trophy Is Ultimate Goal

Commission Under Coach Peterson's Leadership Has Planned Double Round-Robin Play-Offs.

Softball, in the form of intramural competition, once again has captivated popular interest. Official beginning of the tournament will be immediately following the completion of the intramural activities now being played.

Approximately eight teams are expected to enter into the tournament which will feature a double round-robin contest for tournament play-offs.

Focus on Four Teams

Coach Don Peterson and the Intramural Commission have planned the exclusive extra-curricular activity to focus upon the four top teams for tournament play following the double round-robin.

However, rain may prohibit successful completion of the expedient plans, plus limiting pre-tournament play and an equivocal one round play-off.

Managers Are Responsible

The spacious field adjacent to and north of the main gymnasium has been mapped out to support four teams playing two games. The infield has been gone over with careful preparation, and if weather remains favorable, considerable enjoyment should be derived by all participants.

Much responsibility will be placed upon the shoulders of the individual team managers. Each manager is asked to supply an umpire and will be conceded the care of all equipment for the duration of the game.

Trophy Is Goal

The ultimate success of the triumphant team will be the presentation of the highly prized intramural softball tournament trophy.

Last year the battling Konvix, under the stern pitching arm of Carroll Leicht, spurred to an easy intramural championship. Although no managers have officially named their rosters, it is expected that competition will be exceptionally keen.

Veterans of the softball tournaments have equipped themselves with an unusual ability in their keen perception of new men who might aid them in obtaining a softball championship. These many scouts have optimistically reported that they have the certain men and that the championship title is no longer in an ambiguous position. Such are the many opinions. The race will be close; competition will be intense and keen.

Students Elect Dick Gordon, Jean Long to Posts

test became crucial. Predictions were mere guesswork and individual lobbying dominated the halls before and after the Easter recess.

Loudspeakers boomed throughout the town and sent campaign messages over the campus. Posters were fastened at every available location, and banners were flung across the hallways and fluttered outdoors.

Campaigning Is Active

Pictures of the candidates were posted ceremoniously and decoratively near the main entrance, and slogans promoted the candidates. Cards of campaign material and matchbooks bearing the candidates' names were passed profusely throughout the study body. Discussion became political.

Wednesday, March 28, in the first vote, students put Terry Noh and Dick Gordon in the run-off, because of the fact that neither obtained a majority of the votes cast. Since the three candidates registered a close count, Terry Noh, however, accumulated more votes than Dick Gordon, and Dick, more than Herbie Awe, who for that reason was eliminated from the run-off two days later. Jean Long was chosen vice-president.

Margin Is Narrow

And then when the votes were tabulated in the run-off contest, Dick Gordon narrowly margined Terry Noh to win one of the most interesting campaigns in the school's history.

Aside from this, and indirectly because of the election, the basis for individual merit rather than organizational merit, has been renewed as a prerequisite for an office. "Education is a process of doing!"

Coxes Will Enter Here

Carol Cox and Dwayne Cox, of Osborn, were participants in the spring contests last week. Both will be students here next fall. Carol's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Cox, are both former students of the College.

Springfield Outscores Host Maryville in Big MIAA Meet

Bob McClure Paces Team Scoring 11 Points; Anderson Gets 10.

Northwest Missouri displayed ambitious intentions for having a powerful track team when it placed second in the MIAA at Columbia, Saturday, March 24. Although defending champions, the Bearcats had lost many of their varsity men through graduation and to the armed services, and consequently, showed surprising strength in a second place finishing.

Springfield capped top honors with an overwhelming 57 points. Maryville's 39 points were 3/4 of a point over third place Warrensburg. Cape Girardeau had 27 1/2, Rolla 20, and Kirksville 2.

Bears Win Honor

Maryville acted as host of the meet, as they did last year, but relinquished the honor to the Springfield Bears, who won five firsts in the twelve events. Maryville captured four first places. Cape Girardeau, Warrensburg, and Rolla each had one first.

Mick Anderson, defending champion of the MIAA indoor mile and two mile events, was edged out of the one mile contest by Fred Clarke of Springfield who covered the distance in 4 minutes 39.4 seconds. Anderson's record for that distance, which he established last year, is 4:33.

Mick Captures Two Mile

Mick captured the two mile event, however, and added a total of nine points to the Bearcat count. Wayne Anderson, Mick's younger brother, showed exceptional ability by placing fourth in the mile run.

High scoring individual honors went to dynamic Bob McClure, who showered the Maryville team with 11 points. Bob scampered across two finish lines first in the hurdle races and managed a fifth in the 60 yard dash.

James and Coulter Help

Fred James picked up a second in the low hurdles and a fourth in the high hurdles for six points, while George Coulter nabbed a point in the high hurdles also.

Surprise sensational honors must go to Hubert Sharp, however, for his performance as a yearling in winning the high jump with a leap of 5 ft. 11 inches. Hubert accomplished this victorious feat without having had the opportunity to work outdoors because of impending weather conditions.

Relay Men Are Third

Frank Bollinger picked up a point in the pole vault, and Carl Leffingwell got two in the shot put. Maryville's mile relay team put on a surprising performance and captured third place for three points.

The Bearcats failed to place in the 440 and 880 yard dashes and the broad jump. Coach Ryland Milner is working untiringly to develop some of his men into dash men.

Bouquets during this session are in order for the co-recreational program under way at the gymnasium each Tuesday and Thursday evening and Saturday afternoon. . . . It requires much work on the part of those interested in the program to provide the facilities which all College students can enjoy. . . .

The people who make the co-rec program possible are to be highly commended. . . . All students should find time to participate in an evening of healthful recreation. . . . If you can't swim, a few dips in the pool will fill the bill, and for clean fun the main floor activities are a pleasant prescription. . . . try it soon. . . . make it a habit.

Who wants Spring? . . . The lads while "working out" on the courts recently were facing a brisk northwest wind and John Pope was sporting a heavy coat and winter scarf—Bud Carmichael was scouting for earmuffs—Brrr. Also waiting for warmer weather are players eager to get the softball season under way—Everyone hopes perhaps spring is here to stay. . . .

In student activities he was president of his class during his sophomore and senior years. . . . Frank holds one "M" in track. . . . In pole vaulting he placed fourth at the Columbia indoor meet this season. . . . His best effort is 11' 6". The husky senior enjoys handicraft work, gold, and. . . oh yes, motorcycling. . . . Then came athletics. . . . Frank, for the future, wants to get into "private enterprise" . . . a business of his own. . . . Bollinger believes in the value of athletics in building the human body strong—and well he might for his life is an interesting story. . . .

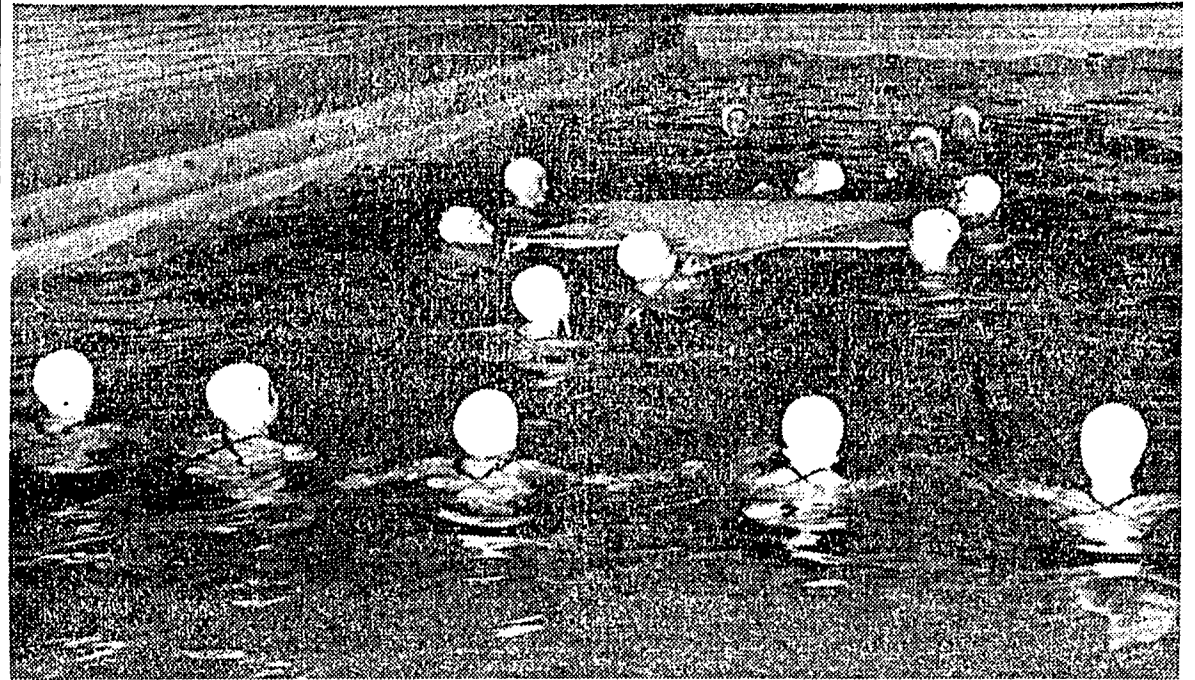

When he was four years old he was stricken with infantile paralysis . . . and was paralyzed on the right side of his body. . . . He was first placed in a cast and received massages—much on the order of the Sister Kenny treatment. . . . These massages kept alive the right arm and leg and left no permanent injury except that the region affected was not as strong as the left arm and shoulder. . . . Then came athletics. . . . In the grades and on through the years Frank has been active in sports, building up his right side. . . . "I can't say too much about what physical exercises and athletic competition have done to help me," says Frank. Today he is an excellent swimmer and a fine athlete and weightman and above all he has a strong normal body—a tribute to the will to overcome the effects of disease. . . .

Home for Bob McClure is Bradyville, Iowa. . . . The Cat senior has double majors of commerce and P. E. . . . Bob prepped his last two years of H. S. at Augusta, Kansas, and it was there that he began his work in track. . . . Also Bob played basketball at a forward post. . . . Following graduation he attended Maryville a year; Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa, for two semesters; and then returned to this campus. . . . With his degree, Bob, who is married, would like to teach. . . .

He enjoys swimming and is an excellent diver and likes hunting when the season rolls around. . . . Bob has a distinguished track record in competition here at the College. . . . Last season at the Conference sessions at Warrensburg he won the 220 low hurdles against stiff competition and placed second in the 120 high against the best in the MIAA. . . . This season at the recent Conference indoor meet the rangy speedster won both the 60 yd. high and low—Maryville's only double winner. . . . He scooted over the lows in 7.4 seconds and triumphed in the highs with a time of 8.1. . . .

Bob is a great competitor and will be counted on to give this season's Cat team badly needed points. . . . Incidentally during workouts one afternoon recently he decided to do some high jumping and kicked a 5' 10" effort. . . . That's good for points in coming cinder events.

Tennis Fray Against Tarkio Takes Place This Afternoon on College Campus Courts

Varsity Team Invites All Students to Help Them Win Home Contest.

This afternoon on the tennis courts Coach Frank Grube's requesters will face the tennis men from Tarkio. In the second meet of an extensive spring schedule, the Maryville tennis team is prepared to offer resistance to the visitors.

Never before has such an elaborate program been introduced on the campus for the purpose of the varsity tennis men. Importance of the sport is being stressed this year with the inclusion of an elaborate schedule of meets plus a large turnout of men for the varsity project.

Students Are Invited

Students are encouraged to come to the courts just across from the gymnasium to watch their Maryville tennis team play Tarkio. Several single and double matches have been lined up for the contest and excitement is certain.

Last year Tarkio was able to accomplish only one single win over the Bearcats. The Maryville team quenched the visitors in four single matches and each of the two double contests.

John Pope Returns

"Budd" Carmichael, although losing the only match last year, suffered the defeat in the final set and had it administered to him by Tarkio's number one man, John Pope will return to the courts again to meet the challenges from the North-erners. Last year John defeated his opponent 6-1 and 6-4.

This contest will also be of valuable experience to the new varsity men who have only seen action against Graceland College last Saturday. For a winning sport the team needs an interested and enthusiastic crowd of supporters. Plan to be at the tennis courts this afternoon at four.

Sigma Phi Dolphins Present Swim Show

Aquatic Day Is the Theme Used in Third Annual Swim Exhibition.

With the hands of a large clock indicating the hour, the Sigma Phi Dolphins presented to their audience an "Aquatic Day," March 29-30. This is the third annual swim show the Dolphins and their sponsor, Miss Jessie B. Juiten, have presented at the College pool.

The day began at nine o'clock with "Oh What a Beautiful Morning," directed by Mary Jo Vernon and Joan Hansen. Swimmers were Mary Jo Vernon, Roberta Berry, Opal Fries and Shirley Clarke.

"Luncheon at the Rose Room" under the direction of Sarabel Davis featured guest swimmers Bob Kariger, Paul Fisher and George Haws. Dolphins who swam in this number were Mary Kinman, Shirley Clarke, and Sarabel Davis.

"Tea Time" followed with four Dolphins from the Gypsy Tea Room swimming under the direction of Mary Lou Neville. The four gypsies were Opal Fries, Ruth Ann Martin, Dorothy Stanton and Roberta Berry. Frank Bollinger, Shirley Clarke and Norma Jean Miller did exhibition diving beginning with comedy dives and then performing jack knives, swans, geyners, etc.

At six o'clock "Cocktails for Two," the Spike Jones version, featured slapstick swimming by Shirley Collier and Shirley Jennings under the direction of Isabel Nash.

Norma Jean Miller, director, and Shirley Dieterich swam, together in their graceful presentation of "Moonlight."

Jazz interpreted in rhythmic swimming was presented by

Jeanne Overstreet, director, Mary Lou Busby, Sarabel Davis, Mary Jo Vernon, and Mafeli Daranyi in "Blues in the Night."

Midnight brought "Stardust," a dance number by Mary Kinman and Norma Jean Miller, that introduced the finale by the entire membership of the Dolphins. Wearing black suits with green and white Dolphin insignia the cast swam in formation around a large star float.

Sets for the show were designed by Isabel Nash. Suzanne Lobdell was the timekeeper who turned the clock hands. Lighting was done by Mr. Robert Gee, assisted by Jesse Masters. Dr. Sterling Surrey announced the show.

This same show will be presented at the St. Joseph Y. M. C. A. on April 17.

Home Ec House Is Practical Study for Homemakers

to how the performance of the duty can be improved. In addition the hostess writes a review of the week's activities for the Home Management's scrapbook.

Miss Anthony Obtained Lease

The first formulated idea for such a house was in 1930 when Miss Hettie M. Anthony obtained a lease on a house. The owner, however, withdrew the lease and curtailed further development until 1937.

In that year President Uel W. Lamkin presented a plan to the Board of Regents for buying a piece of real estate and a house. The Board accepted the proposal and in the winter of that year four girls and their supervisor, Miss June Colzine, now head of the Home Economics Department, moved into the new establishment.

Follow Five Objectives

Since then the five specific objectives of the "practical living experience" have been promoted. These are as follows:

- (1) Equal distribution of responsibilities among all members of the group;
- (2) the problems involved in planning, purchasing, preparing and serving food which meet the nutritional needs of each member of the group and develop a sense of refinement.
- (3) The economics problems involved in establishing and operating a home; (4) care of the house and its furnishings; (5) human values and social relationships.

Student Recognizes Problem; Solves Need With Initiative

A weakness in the athletic program for the spring quarter has been patched up by the initiative of a rabid sports enthusiast. Recognizing the need for a College baseball team, sophomore Bob Hemenway grasped leadership in organizing practice drills, managing the team, and establishing a schedule.

The Kansas City student feels that with positive cooperation between the athletic department and the students, the sport of baseball on the campus can be made into a major program.

Roy Rupp Helps

With the assistance of Roy Rupp, Bob is planning a schedule of nine games with other communities. He expects to have four home games, and is hoping to make them Sunday afternoon contests.

An intersquad game has been planned this Saturday at 2:30. Early drill sessions will help the coaches to divide the squad into two powerful factions.

Veterans Return

Returning veterans of an experimental team of last year features the efficient battery of "Slim" Tanner and Max Hochenauer. Two capable outfielders reporting are Glen Sherry and Paul Tobin.

"Around the nucleus I hope to build a strong hustling ball club," surmises Bob. "We're going to hustle, hustle, and hustle. As a matter of fact, we're going to have a hustling ball club."

Department Is Skeptical

Although the athletic department has given its sanction and has designated the field for use at any time, it remains skeptical as to the success of this student endeavor.

A few years ago, under official College sponsorship, a baseball team was formulated and a nine game schedule was made. But every game was rained out and the endeavor ended in failure.

Weather Not Suitable?

Since then Director "Lefty" Davis has been reluctant to start another baseball team. He maintains that the weather is not suitable for an extensive schedule and that the sport is non-money making.

Can the students as players and spectators accept this challenge? Time and effort will tell!

Have Weekly Reports

The weekly reports have been the historical record of the House. A recent report by Hostess Polly Cramer is exemplary of the House life.

"Bless each little ruffle—the curtains are all back at their nice clean windows. We got pretty handy slipping the gathers around our automatic ironer but now we know it can be done. And our house does look as if someone is living here again."

"Norine sprang some real chef specialties on us. The whole campus was inquiring about our broiled banana sandwiches and French onion soup—funny how the news gets around. Happy to relate we had only favorable comments to give our public. They really were delicious as well as different."

"Jean Short and Mafeli Daranyi ate spaghetti and meat balls with us Thursday evening. None of us has much of the old Italy in us—before the meal was half-over we had resorted to cutting the long strings down to pieces our own size. "We're in pictures now and it will just be a matter of time until the movie scouts are hounding our door for repeat performances. Members of the Power and Light Company were here Friday to take pictures of their appliances "in action." We've joined the line of famous endorsers—"Home Management House prefers Westinghouse."

Bearcats Are Triangular Meet Favorites Saturday Afternoon

Tarkio and Peru will challenge Maryville in a triangular meet for local cinder superiority this Friday, April 13. The surprising strength which the Bearcats displayed in the MIAA Indoor Track Meet at Columbia will again be tested by these two teams who are anxious for a decisive revenge.

Last year, in a runaway contest, Maryville accumulated 112 1/2 points. Peru managed 33 1/2, and Tarkio pulled in just 15. The Bearcats captured 13 of 16 first places and in that eventful afternoon ten records were broken and two tied.

High point man of last year, Al Wormsley, who scored 18 points, has been graduated, as has winner Norman James and Dick Shoneman. Mick Anderson and Bob McClure, lettermen, will head the Green and White speedsters.

A freshman, Hubert Sharp, will play an important role in point scoring after having proved his winning ability at Columbia. Frank Bollinger can be counted upon for a placing in the pole vault, and Carl Leffingwell will be relied upon for points in the field events while the dashes are unpredictable.

All in all, the Maryville team has an excellent chance of surpassing its opponents despite the loss of many point winners. McClure and Anderson are depended upon for about twenty points and Hubert Sharp is expected to draw five. With such an efficiency, Coach Ryland Milner's tracksters should forge into the front as winners of the triangular meet again.

Jack Brown was commissioned as a second lieutenant in the Air Force at Lackland Air Force base, San Antonio, Texas, March 9. Lieutenant and Mrs. Brown visited with their parents at Creston, Iowa enroute to his new station at Sampson Air Force base at Geneva, New York. Lieutenant Brown attended NWMSC from the Spring quarter 1949 to the Spring quarter 1950.

Two "swabbies," Glenn Price and Jack Skahill, direct from "Dago" recently were on the campus visiting friends. Glenn and Jack enlisted in the United States Navy during the winter quarter.
